

PRIORITY OF ACCESS

The Australian Government has set specific priorities for access to childcare services. The Australian Government requires the Centre to provide access to the Service according to the following priority of access.

This means that when the Centre is full, those families who are third priority may be asked to alter their care arrangements to allow a family with higher priority to access the Service.

First priority: Children at risk of serious abuse or neglect.

Second priority: Children whose parents/guardians satisfy the work/training/study test under Section 14 of the Family Assistance Act.

Third priority: Any other child.
