Behaviour Education and Support Guidelines

Sources of Authority
CECWA Policy	Community
Executive Directive	Student Safety, Wellbeing and Behaviour

Student Safety Wellbeing and Behaviour guides the creation of these cultures where students feel safe and can flourish in their learning and development.

1. Rationale

Orana Catholic Primary School's Behaviour Education and Support Guidelines is based on the school Gospel Values: Generosity, Respect, Excellence. The Student Code of Conduct is a student-led process and is created at the commencement of each academic year. This Code of Conduct guides all expected behaviours at Orana Catholic Primary School. It underpins both whole school and classroom rules which are not explicitly stated in our policy. Based on Restorative Practice and the use of the Highway Heroes Program, Orana Catholic Primary School endeavours to ensure children accept responsibility for their education and behaviour, understanding that attitudes and behaviours have a natural consequence.

2. Aims

As a school, we aim:

- 2.1 To nurture Respect, Responsibility and Resilience towards self, others and their environment.
- 2.2 To create a positive environment where children respect the rights of others, including:
 - The rights of other children to learn.
 - The rights of the teacher to teach.
 - The rights of everyone to feel safe.
- 2.3 To foster self-regulation and develop responsibility for one's own behaviour.
- 2.4 To accept that some children require an Individual Positive Behaviour Plan to recognise and assist in positive change of their emotional self-regulation, which impacts behaviour.
- 2.5 To accept that each child and each incident will be managed according to the needs of the child and the situation at the time, through the use of restorative practices.
- 2.6 In escalating situations, one staff member is to assist with regulating a child's behaviour to respect the dignity of the child.
- 2.7 To promote the understanding that minimal dialogue reduces stress and calms escalated behaviour i.e. aim for 10 words or less.
- 2.8 To promote the understanding of Zones of Regulation for use with individual children.

3. Behaviour Categories and Actions

Below a sample of behaviours have been listed and categorised and how these behaviours are dealt with.

4. Glossary

SEQTA Pastoral Care

When a communication is placed as a Pastoral Care post on SEQTA, language used must be written in factual/objective form, free from emotive language.

Highway Heroes

A Social and Emotional learning program to support students to acquire the skills to recognise and manage emotions, develop caring and concern for others, establish positive relationships, make responsible decisions and handle challenging situations effectively.

Restorative Practice

Restorative Practice is a teaching and learning approach that promotes self-regulation and encourages behaviour that is supportive and respectful. It puts the onus on individuals to be truly accountable for their behaviour and to repair any harm caused to others as a result of their actions. The focus is on building and maintaining positive relationships across the whole school community. Refer to Appendix 2 For questions to prompt a restorative conversation.

Zones of Regulation

BLUE Zone – Your body is running slow, such as when you are tired, sick, sad or bored.

GREEN Zone – Like a green light, you are “good to go.” Your body may feel happy, calm and focused.

YELLOW Zone – This zone describes when you start to lose control, such as when you are frustrated, anxious, worried, silly or surprised. Use caution when you are in this zone.

RED Zone – This zone is for extreme emotions such as anger, terror and aggression. When you are in this zone, you are out of control, have trouble making good decisions and must STOP!

Suggested questions can include:

1. I can see that you are in the _____ zone.
2. What is happening?
3. How can we work together to get into the green zone?
4. What were you thinking?
5. Who do you think is being affected? How do you think they may feel?
6. What do you need to do to put things right?

‘Time In’

Some children need lots of hits to practise self-regulation effectively. It is important that they learn to read the signs of when a student is escalating and find ways that assist them in independently regulating their behaviour so they can learn again and be happy. ‘Time in’ can be achieved by:

- Walking to a place that helps them to calm down (a pre-organised venue where a safe relationship helps to restore calm such as the sensory room).
- Taking big, deep breaths.
- Completing some ‘heavy’ work e.g. pushing logs.
- Running.
- Drinking water.
- Brain breaks

Mini Conference

Continued misbehaviour, harmful events or conflicts that involve one or more students and a teacher, but not serious enough to involve parents, are resolved by holding a mini conference. The class teacher becomes the neutral facilitator, leads the process and an agreement is reached and formalised and recorded on SEQTA.

Class Conference

A class conference is held when the whole class is being affected by hostility or conflict to the point where learning is impeded, and relationships are damaged. A neutral facilitator, teacher(s), support personnel and the students, sit in a circle and discuss the issues, explore the harm and come up with solutions. This should be used regularly to reinforce positive behaviours and sort out any issues that maybe underlying. It helps to keep the class focused on being positive.

5. Severe Clause

A severe behaviour is when a student behaves in a manner – physically or verbally, that is a threat to either themselves or others.

Teacher/s will phone through to the office where necessary. Where possible, the student will be removed immediately and escorted to a safe place.

1. Appropriate staff will assist in escorting the student to a safe place.
2. Staff member to support student with regulation.
3. Once details are established, parents of the student will be contacted immediately and informed of the severe incident.
4. Notes of incident are placed on SEQTA.
5. Ongoing professional conversations are required to monitor and observe the frequency of further incidents and make judgements as to whether an Individual Positive Behaviour Plan is required.

APPENDIX 2

'Decision Please' Process - Steps to Support Behaviour Regulation

Step 1 Calm	Request desired behaviour. Avoid focus on negative behaviour. Reinforce what you would like from the student, rather than what he/she is not doing.
Step 2 Triggered	Utilise usual classroom management strategies.
Step 3 Agitated	Provide structured choice. 2 options. Do desired behaviour or calm zone/brain break/activity to support regulation. E.g. Sit under the tree or walk and talk Jump on trampoline or sensory room Mindful colouring or sensory box Complete maths sheet at desk or in beanbag
Step 4 Acceleration	Re-state options in step 3 Say "Decision please" if not answered If no response call Admin (331) for support. Principal, Assistant Principal or Social Worker to attend classroom. Use de-escalation and co-regulation strategies. If no response, student told to come to the office. If refuses told "next step – we will call home". Parents called if not co-regulating in office.
